Re: Special Education Teacher
Applicant – Hayley Briar

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Hayley Briar. When I worked with Hayley at Clovis High School, she had already worked as an Instructional Assistant within Clovis Unified for more than 3 years and has always proven to be a valued member of the instructional staff. Hayley continued working with students with disabilities when she moved to Los Angeles for over 2 years. I am confident that she would be a beneficial asset to any special education program.

Hayley is currently completing college at Grand Canyon University, as well as her student teaching, in pursuit of her teaching credential in Special Education.

I have had the pleasure of knowing Hayley Briar for more than 13 years. Hayley is personable, professional, and always willing to accept new challenges. She is the type of person who is passionate about helping people, and working with others to achieve a common goal. Hayley is a team player who is willing to take the lead when her strengths are needed. I have noticed these traits throughout her personal and professional career.

Another strength is Hayley's willingness to take on challenges with a smile. She is a friendly and welcoming individual who is eager to learn. I know Hayley will help students with their challenges, because she has personally been there for my family. She has also proven to be an invaluable asset in previous classrooms. I have received positive feedback from anyone who has worked with her in the past. She is a passionate and caring individual.

Hayley exemplifies all that we need in a teacher for students with special education needs. I would fully recommend hiring Hayley Briar for your teaching position.

Sincerely,

Joshua Smith
